NEWS RELEASE

Joint Redistricting Committees Meetings

The House Committee on Redistricting and the Senate Committee on Redistricting will jointly hold a listening tour consisting of 14 town hall meetings across the state during the week of August 9, 2021, to receive public comments concerning the redistricting process, which takes place every decade in accordance with the U.S. Census.

Any individual wishing to present testimony should follow the instructions on the Kansas Legislative Research Department (KLRD) Redistricting webpage, which may be accessed at <http://www.kslegresearch.org/KLRD-web/Redistricting.html>. Information on how to stream each meeting online will be posted on the KLRD webpage once available.

A list of meeting dates, times, and locations is attached to this press release. Any updates made to specific venue location information will be posted on the KLRD webpage.
