Supplementary Report: Lewis Narrative 2021-Sep-3

On 09-03-2021 at about 1416 hours, I (Cpl. Terry Lewis) was dispatched to the lobby at police headquarters (215 E. Cedar) regarding a battery.

Upon my arrival, I contacted [REDACTED] who advised on 08-20-2021 at about 2015 hours, she was battered by Fabian Shepard. She advised she was at The Farms of Woodend (14100 Woodend) when she was contacted by Fabian Shepard who asked her to follow him around the east side of the building. As they walked around the corner Fabian grabbed her by the back of the neck and back and kissed her on the mouth. She did not want Fabian to kiss her or want to kiss him. Fabian then asked her if he was a "bad kisser" and kissed her again. She realized what was happening as Fabian was attempting to kiss her a third time and she pushed him away from her and went back inside the building.

She knows who Fabian is as they work together. Fabian is the Chairman for the Johnson County Republican Party and she is the [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] was only requesting this incident be document at this time.

At about 1620 hours, I responded to 14100 Woodend and contacted Shellie Quandt, owner of The Farms of Woodend and she advised she did not have any video of the area where this incident occurred.

I was able to located Fabian's information via a computer search for his Kansas drivers license.
