Nature of corporation's business or purpose

To engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Kansas general corporation code. Kansans for Democracy, Inc. (the "Corporation") is organized primarily to further the common good and general welfare of the citizens of the United States of America within the meaning of section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including by promoting democratic engagement in judicial selection, educating the public on the importance of the judiciary in our system of government, and empowering the public to become more engaged.

No part of the net income of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose and objects set forth herein.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provision of any future United State Internal Revenue law.

The Corporation may be dissolved at any time by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of the Corporation who are in attendance at a meeting of the Board called for such purpose. Following such vote, the Board of Directors shall supervise the orderly dissolution of the Corporation, including the distribution of the remaining assets of the Corporation consistent with the purposes stated herein. Upon dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the remaining assets of the Corporation, if any, shall be distributed to one or more organizations which are organized and operated for charitable or social welfare purposes, as described in sections 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, respectively.
